

2021 Summer Series of Speakers and Music
Crossnore Presbyterian Church, 200 Chapel Drive, 828-733-1939
(All Programs are Free and Open to the Public)

Tuesday, July 13, 7 p.m., Church Sanctuary, Dr. Karl Campbell—"Native Carolinians: American Indian History in North Carolina."

Dr. Campbell, a history professor at ASU, will introduce us to both the history of Native Americans in our state and to some of the ways we have misunderstood the Indian experience in North Carolina.

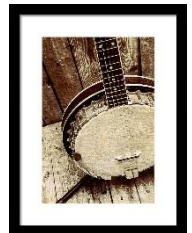

Tuesday, July 20, 7 p.m., Church Sanctuary, Dr. Judkin Browning—"The Environmental History of the Civil War."

Dr. Browning and his co-author Tim Silver, both professors at ASU, argue in an important new book that the environment influenced the Civil War's outcome but also that the war was a watershed event in the history of the environment itself. Books will be available for purchase.

Tuesday, July 27, 7 p.m., Church Sanctuary, Zack Allen and Maggie Lauterer will host "A Night of Old Time Mountain Music and Stories."

Zack Allen and Maggie Lauterer, among other gifts and skills, are mountain musicians and storytellers.

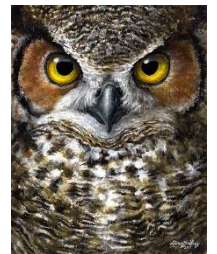

Tuesday, August 3, 7 p.m., Church Sanctuary, Bobby Taylor and the Jazz Band

The Concert will feature music from the Great American Song Book including songs from the Gershwin brothers, Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart, Jerome Kern, and Johnny Mercer.

Sunday, August 8, 11 a.m., Celebration of God's Creation Worship Service. The May Wildlife Center, Lees-McRae College, will be joining us in worship.

Nina Fischesser, her staff, and animal ambassadors will be ready to greet you at 10:30 a.m. that morning as you come into worship. The owls, falcons, song birds, and other creatures will join us as we praise and worship God our Creator.

Tuesday, August 10, 7 p.m., Church Sanctuary, Dr. Karl Campbell—"Critical Race Theory: What Is It and Why Is It So Controversial."

Dr. Campbell will lead us through a non-partisan examination of this contemporary debate and explore the ways modern scholars think and teach about the history of race in United States History.

Tuesday, August 17, 7 p.m., Church Sanctuary, Old-Fashioned Hymn Sing.

Kathy Hutcheson, our Director of Music, will lead us in singing some old hymns we know and some we may have never sung. Come and join in the fun!

Sunday, August 22, 11 a.m., Church Sanctuary, A Worship Service of Song and Scripture: Ulysses Long, an acclaimed NC professional singer and church musician and soloist will be sharing his gift of voice and piano. Come, ready to sing and to listen to God's voice in the words and melody of sacred music.

Tuesday, August 31, 7 p.m., Church Sanctuary, Anne Trenning and Ed Williams will present "A Concert of Music and Word."

Anne Trenning is an award-winning instrumental pianist and has composed and recorded five CDs. Ed Williams was the editor of Charlotte Observer's editorial page for over 25 years before his retirement. Together, Ann and Ed weave a magical evening of readings and music that blend both spoken word and instrumental music.

We are holding the evening programs in the church sanctuary with the windows open.

There will be plenty of room to spread out.

We ask people who have not been vaccinated or have a compromised immune system to wear a mask.
