Spring Cleaning Day! April 1, 2017

Last Saturday’s Cleaning Day was no April Fool’s joke! Much effort and sweat was put into moving furniture and stripping and waxing the floor in Fellowship Hall by Clarence Kenyon, Greg Gacek and Jason DeWitt. It looks wonderful!

Pastor Kathy worked on the nursery. She says it is spick and span and ready for children.

The sanctuary was cleaned and, in fact, was ready for us to move back for the worship service last Sunday. Charlotte Davila, Tommie Tennant, Linda and Bob Taylor and their grand daughter, Hatley, Patricia McGarr, Janis Kenyon and Ashlyn Dewitt swarmed the sanctuary. The pews, pulpit, choir loft, tables, piano, organ and windows were dusted and cleaned. The floors were swept and the carpet vacuumed. There was lots of reaching stretching and bending as well as crawling under pews, More than one of us was sore the next day.

Special Thank Yous to Charlotte Davila for organizing and herding us into action and to Clarence Kenyon for bringing the equipment, gathering the cleaning supplies and keeping Jason and Greg on task.

It was wonderful to be able to worship in our sanctuary last Sunday. It really will be spring soon here in Avery County.
