The next Summer Speaker Series event at Crossnore Presbyterian will be Tuesday, July 18, from 7-8:30 p.m. Dr. Karl Campbell will present “Progress and Reaction: North Carolina in the Early 20th Century (1900 –

1929)” North Carolina earned a reputation as the most progressive state in the South during the first few decades of the twentieth century, even as it continued to struggle with poverty and racism. The Progressive Movement, WWI, and the Roaring Twenties each pushed the state in new directions, not all of which were welcomed by more traditional Tar Heels. The resulting cultural conflicts created deep social divisions that continue to impact our lives today.

Will Jordan has received his 2nd Mayland Fellowship Scholarship as he continues his studies at NCSU. His certificate will be awarded at the Mayland Fellowship meeting, at Grassy Creek Presbyterian Church in Spruce Pine on Sunday, July 9.
