Give justice to the weak and the orphan; maintain the right of the lowly and the destitute. ~Psalm 82:3

A Walk in the Park, RAM's Hunger Walk, will be Saturday, September 30 from 10—12 noon at Newland Riverwalk. For more information call Reaching Avery Ministry (828)733-5127.

Sunday, October 8, is the next Mayland Fellowship, and Banner Elk Presbyterian is hosting. A catered dinner by Loaves and Fishes will be served at 5:30 in the Fellowship Hall (all donations for the meal will go to the MF Scholarship Fund), followed by a brief business meeting and program in the sanctuary. We expect the gathering to be over by 7:30 at the latest.

The program will be feature mountain instrument music by retired Presbyterian minister Maggie Lauterer and husband Zach Allen. Zack and Maggie met at an old time music festival - she was performing with her dulcimer and he was performing with his banjo - and the rest is history. For more years than they like to admit, they have been singing and playing their instruments as they do their part to preserve the music they heard their grandparents play and sing in the Appalachians.

Zack, a prize winning five string banjo player and Maggie, who once won Best Performer at the Mountain Dance and Folk Festival with her Appalachian dulcimer, will share music for the October 8 Mayland program. We'd love to have a good crowd, so put it on your calendar and join us.
