Serving with My Whole Heart

by Jeanne Stevens

You call me to serve others,
but I judge those I am supposed to be serving.

You call me to be Christ-like,
but I gossip instead.

You call me to give of my time,
but I want another hour for myself.

You call me to give my money,
but my flesh wants material possessions.

You call me to teach,
but I want only the "easy" students.

You don't give up,
but I ignore you.

You call me softly

and finally I listen.

Pleading for forgiveness.

Asking that there is less of me and more of
You in my actions and in my spirit.

Three to four inches of snow, and sixteen degrees.
