Bill Paul's Memorial Service was held Sunday evening in Delnor-Wiggins Pass State Recreation Area located on a barrier island on Florida's southwest coast. This was a place that was very special to

Bill and Juanita who were park volunteers for many years. Before the service everyone gathered at the Paul's home for a feast of food and fellowship and headed down to the beach before sunset. Pastor Kathy officiated the service and family and friends shared their dear memories of Bill's life. At the end of the service, the family waded into the waters and sent Bill's ashes into the Gulf of Mexico as the sun was setting. It was a holy moment indeed! Jaunita and Pamela Paul's address is 551 Cypress Way East, Naples, FL 34110.

Infinite and holy
A billion suns rise for you

Valleys bow down to you Everything rising to Sing all our songs for you
