Tuesday, August 13, 7 p.m.—“An Evening of Readings and Music” presented by Anne Trenning and Ed Williams. Anne and Ed are returning to our church for another great performance. Anne Trenning is known both for composing strong melodies, and for arranging memorable tunes in new ways. Anne’s sound blends her classical training with her love of new age, gospel, Celtic, jazz, classic rock, folk and Americana. Her recordings feature solo piano pieces along with an assortment of selections accompanied by other acoustic instruments such as violin, cello, flute, piccolo, guitar, bass, and percussion. As an accomplished pianist and composer, Anne has performed across the country and her music is featured on Pandora. For more information, visit her website: www.annetrenning.com

Ed Williams retired in 2008 after nearly a half-century in journalism, beginning in Mississippi and ending as editor of The Charlotte Observer’s editorial pages. The newspaper life enabled Ed to follow his interests wherever they led, from religion to sports, foreign policy to family, photographing Eudora Welty to facing off with William Faulkner’s watchcow. He had a lot of fun along the way. For more information, visit his website: www.edwilliamsbooks.com

Everyone is invited to this unique and inspiring performance.
