fast will be served. Please bring fruit, pastries, coffee cake, etc. to share. Orange juice and coffee will be provided.

A Great Turn-out for the "Readings and Music" Program last night! Over 70 folks from our church and the community enjoyed an inspiring evening of readings from Ed Williams, who spent 50 years in journalism and retired in 2008 as the Editor of the Charlotte Observer's editorial pages, and original music performed by Anne Trenning, whose pieces matched the mood of the readings. Anne is a master pianist and composer and has taught piano for over 25 years. She has recently released her 5th CD. If you would like to purchase Ed's book, Liberating Dixie: An Editor's Life, From Ole Miss to Obama. His book is available on his website: www.edwilliamsbooks.com

Anne's CDs may be purchased at www.annetrenning.com

Tuesday, August 20, 7 p.m. — "An Old-Fashioned Hymn Sing" led by Maggie Lauterer and accompanied by Kathy Hutcheson. Our second annual hymn sing is sure to bring back memories from days gone by. Join us for a wonderful evening of singing and fellowship.
